

Has Your Small Child Care Business Been Impacted by COVID-19?

Apply Now for Financial Assistance through the Payment Protection Program (PPP)

Overview of PPP & How to Apply

PPP provides loans to small businesses, including child care providers, to help cover payroll and benefits for employees, as well as overhead costs, such as rent, utilities, and mortgage interest.

PPP loans will be forgiven if all employee retention criteria are met, and the funds are used for eligible expenses. Learn more about PPP loan forgiveness here.

Apply ASAP for limited resources. The final deadline to apply is now August 8, 2020, but funds may run out sooner.

To apply for a PPP loan, find a participating lender, here. The application form can be found here.

Resources for Child Care Providers

NAEYC application guide for child care providers: click here for English version or here for Spanish version.

Application resources for family child care providers developed by Home Grown: click here (English & Spanish).

PPP overview & FAQ provided by First Five Years Fund: click here.

Need more assistance?

UC Berkeley Law Center Assistance for Small Business Owners:

- Register to be matched with a law school graduate student who can assist you with the application process: click here (support available in English, Spanish & Mandarin).
- Join free, weekly office hours to have your questions answered by lawyers and financial professionals: click here.

Low Income Investment Fund (LIIF) Assistance:

- Contact a LIIF staff member to answer questions about the application process & requirements: click here.

Comprehensive FAQ from Square: click here.

Free application clinics & toolbox provided by Fiscal Strength for Nonprofits: click here.

